

re: broadcast ownership rules

I am against any further consolidation of media, and especially against further consolidations within local markets. I believe this weakens our democracy by limiting the voices available to the American people, and weakening the dialogue on issues important to the American people. Further consolidation of America's media will not neither promote competition nor diversity. I oppose any further consolidations of media.